NOTICE – Tyendinaga Newsletter Delivery

As a cost saving measure, as well as an environmental consideration, effective April 2017, the Tyendinaga Mohawk Council approved that the Tyendinaga Newsletter will no longer be delivered door-to-door.

The Newsletter will be posted on the MBQ website and will be made available for pick up at the Mohawk Administration Office, Community Wellbeing Centre, Kanhiote Library as well as the Huron Brant Drive mail box location.

The newsletter will also be made available at western and eastern store locations on the Territory (please see next month's newsletter for locations).

We thank you for your understanding of our desire to be fiscally and environmentally responsible.

Sincerely,

Chief R. Donald Maracle

Re: Proposed Amendments to Ontario Water Resources Act
First Nation Consultation

Dear Premier Wynne,

I am writing to you on behalf of the Tyendinaga Mohawk Council regarding the lack of First Nation consultation on the proposed amendments to the Provincial water taking permit process under the Ontario Water Resources Act.

The Mohawks of the Bay of Quinte have not extinguished our Aboriginal inherent or collective rights to surface and groundwater resources in the Province. Any policy decisions by the Province to restrict or deny use of these resources by First Nations must have input from First Nation communities. Section 35 of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms upholds that First Nations have a right to free, prior and informed consent regarding any legislative revisions that may impact Aboriginal rights. In addition, the right to take water for the well-being of our nation is an aboriginal right that has been continually exercised before and after contact with European Nations. It continues as an aboriginal right and has not been diminished nor has it been surrendered to the Crown.

In order to uphold the honour of the Crown, First Nation political leadership in the Province must be adequately consulted and informed about the impacts of any action the Crown is taking that may infringe on our rights. The Mohawks of the Bay of Quinte have never surrendered rights to water.

Posting the proposed amendments on the EBR should not be construed as an appropriate consultation process with First Nations. Communication of any proposed legislative amendments should be forwarded to the First Nation political leadership across the Province on a basis of mutual respect in accordance with the recent political accord signed by you and Regional Chief Isadore Day. I encourage an open communication process with First Nations in an effort to mitigate any potential adverse impacts the policy decision may have on First Nations People and Territories.

I look forward to discussing the proposed amendments with you and other First Nation leadership at a formal meeting sponsored by the Province.

Yours truly,

Chief R. Donald Maracle

Dear Chief Maracle,

Thank you for taking the time to send your letter regarding First Nation consultation on proposed amendments to the Ontario Water Resources Act. I appreciate your sharing your views with me.

Ontario is taking action to protect the province's water resources for future generations by proposing a two-year moratorium on new or expanded water takings from groundwater by bottling companies, as well as stricter rules for renewals of existing permits.

While the proposed moratorium is in place, Ontario also plans to:

- Undertake research to improve understanding of groundwater in Ontario;
- Review existing rules for adequate protection of groundwater for future generations; and
- Receive public input and feedback on Ontario's current groundwater permitting process and groundwater management moving forward.

In the face of climate change, population growth, increasing water consumption and drought, concerns around water security have risen. Ontario's ongoing plan to protect groundwater resources is essential to the health and integrity of the province's ecosystems and communities.

As the issue you raised falls within the area of responsibility of my colleague the Honourable Glen Murray, Minister of the Environment and Climate Change, I have asked that he or a member of his ministry staff respond to you directly.

Once again, thank you for writing. Please accept my best wishes.

Sincerely,

Things First Nations Visitors & Canadians Need to know BEFORE Visiting the United States?

If you have friends or family visiting the U.S. for any reason or any length of time including day trips, or you're a non-U.S. citizen planning a trip to the United States, you should understand the following facts before visiting the U.S.

1. U.S. Medical Costs are Very Expensive

The U.S. and Canada have the highest costs for medical care. A single trip to the emergency room for a few stitches and some antibiotics can cost hundreds of dollars.

Foreign visitors without travel health insurance will have to pay out of pocket for their medical treatment. While there are a few welfare hospitals in the U.S., (most are bankrupt) they have very long wait times for non-emergency treatment, so you cannot expect to get prompt, or top-notch treatment.

2. Foreign Visitors do not Receive Free Medical Care

The U.S. health care system is not 'free healthcare' – not for visitors or for citizens. This can be the most confusing fact of all for those entering the U.S. from countries where healthcare is free (or, more accurately, paid for by taxes).

Further, foreign visitors on short-term visas as tourists, i.e., not students or temporary foreign workers, do NOT have access to buy their own health insurance from the healthcare marketplaces in the country they are visiting.

3. Emergency Room Visits are Not Free Either

Even if your treatment is considered an emergency, hospitals will expect payment for treatment costs, including surgeries, medicines, medical supplies, ambulance transportation, and anything else used to treat you.

If you are a foreigner and need emergency medical treatment, it's likely that you will be transported to a welfare-based hospital soon after they discover you have no insurance.

4. Students and Temporary Foreign Workers are Not Exempt

Foreign students and temporary foreign workers are not exempt from the Affordable Care Act requirements to obtain qualified health insurance. If you are a student studying in the U.S. or a foreign worker, you will have to get health insurance in the U.S. either through the university, or through the employer. If neither, your university or employer can provide you access to health insurance you can buy. You will need to log into the government's health care site, choose your state, and start researching a plan to purchase.

NOTE: You should have travel health insurance prior to leaving to cover the trip from your homeland to the U.S. and also to ensure coverage is valid for the period of time it takes you to buy and receive health insurance for out of country.

For example: If you are hospitalized for dehydration due to a flu bug you picked up soon after arrival and you do not have travel health insurance or your health insurance is not yet in effect, you will pay for your medical treatment on your own. An overnight stay in the hospital can run be thousands of dollars; medical treatment for a car accident can bankrupt an individual and you may never financially recover.

5. An Evacuation Out of the U.S. May Be Necessary

Little known fact: Emergency medical evacuations are not usually covered under any U.S. based health insurance plan. If you're a foreign visitor, however, getting an evacuation back to your home country where you can be with family and friends and back in your own health care system is sometimes the only way to control costs.

Nearly all travel health insurance plans have coverage for evacuations back to your home country. The cost of an evacuation depends largely on how far you have to travel. An evacuation from the U.S. to Canada will cost a lot less than one to Australia. Get coverage for at least $100,000 - $300,000 and you should be fine.

6. Pre-existing Conditions May Cause You Trouble

While the Affordable Care Act addresses pre-existing conditions for those living in or citizens of the U.S., many travelers are surprised when a travel insurance provider denies their claims due to a pre-existing medical condition. In some cases, the condition is one that the traveler didn't even recognize as a medical condition that could disqualify them. This is especially true of conditions that:

- a doctor diagnosed but did not explain to you
- are controlled by medication you take regularly
- have not yet been diagnosed but symptoms were treated

*Travel Insurance is about more than Travel Medical****

While having travel medical protection covers the big concern that foreign visitors have going to the U.S., travel insurance is not only about travel medical. There are many other travel disasters that can affect your trip and cause unexpected costs.

Trip cancellation and interruption coverage can protect you from big losses if you have to cancel a trip or end it early and return home. There are also different kinds of cancellation coverage for specialized instances, including having to cancel for work reasons or cancelling for any reason at all.

Baggage loss and delay protection means you'll have some – not a lot, but some – reimbursement for lost or stolen bags.

Coverage for missed connections (when you miss a cruise departure, for example) and travel delays (when they cancel all flights due to a hurricane or blizzard, for example).

Package travel insurance plans combine lots of benefits into full-featured plans that give a foreign visitor a lot of protection. See a local travel agent/guide for more details on coverage options you can choose for your visit to the United States.

You can purchase travel insurance from various places including your bank, travel agencies, through your credit card provider and online, just to mention a few.

Regardless of where you arrange travel insurance, be sure you understand any exceptions, criteria, conditions and most importantly when the coverage begins and ends to ensure you have sufficient coverage!!

Winter Weather Safety & Falls Prevention

Winter can be a challenging time of year to get out and about.

Freezing rain, icy surfaces and piles of hard-packed snow pose a hazard for all of us!

A few simple measures can make it safer to walk outdoors in winter:

- Removing snow and ice
- Putting sand or salt on areas where people walk
- Wearing the right footwear

Just one bad fall on ice can have long-term consequences:

- Chronic pain in the affected area
- A disabling injury that may mean loss of independence, or fear of another fall, which discourages a healthy, active lifestyle.

Quick Facts...

- The risk of falling increases with age and is greater for women than for men.

- Two-thirds of those who experience a fall will fall again within six months.
- A decrease in bone density contributes to falls and injuries.
- Failure to exercise regularly results in poor muscle tone, decreased strength, and loss of bone mass and flexibility.
- At least one-third of all falls in the elderly involve environmental hazards in and around the home.

Community Health: "They are of good health, peaceful thinking and are able to contribute to the community the community in ways that help others maintain the first two"

Cold Weather...

Brings an increased risk of hypothermia and frostbite for people who stay outside for long periods of time without adequate protection. Overexposure to cold temps can result in severe injury and even death.

People at greatest risk from cold injuries are:

- Infants less than a year old
- Elderly
- Homeless
- Outdoor Workers & Recreation Enthusiasts

Prevention:

- * Wear several layers of clothing and make sure that the outer layer protects you from wind & wetness
- * Covered exposed skin (hats, mittens, face mask) to protect against frostbite
- * Drink warm fluids that do not contain caffeine or alcohol to prevent dehydration
- * Check frequently on elderly and vulnerable people
- * Maintain a heated indoor environment above 20° C (hypothermia can occur when indoor temps are 16°C or lower).
- * Avoid strenuous exercise during cold spells.

FALL Prevention Tips!

All Living Spaces:

- Avoid throw rugs
- Reduce Clutter
- Ensure adequate lighting

Bathrooms:

- Install grab bars on walls, around the tub and beside the toilet
- Add non-skid mats or appliques to bathtub

Kitchen:

- Keep common items within easy reach
- Use a sturdy step stool when you need something from a high shelf

Stairways, Hallways & Pathways:

- Install tightly fastened hand rails running the entire length and along both sides of stairs

WW1: Honouring Those Who Volunteered in January, 1917

In January 1917, David Stanley Bernhardt was the only volunteer from our community.

DAVID STANLEY BERNHARDT

Regimental Number: 1099026

David Stanley Bernhardt was born on the 25th of January, 1880. His baptismal record and attestation paper agree.

He was the son of Robert James & Catherine (Maracle) Barnhart. (The spelling of David Stanley's last name is taken directly from his signature on his attestation paper and does contradict the spelling of his father's last name.)

David volunteered on the 4th of January, 1917, in St. Catharines, Ontario for the 256th Overseas Railway Construction Battalion.

According to his military personnel file, he worked as a machinist before the war and lived in Port Dalhousie, Ontario. He had no previous military experience.

David left Halifax, Nova Scotia, on the 26th of March, 1917, and arrived in Liverpool, England, on the 7th of April, 1917.

He was transferred to the 10th Battalion, Canadian Railway Troops, on the 31st of May, 1917, and proceeded to France in June of that year. Upon arrival in France, he was sent to the field. David was given 11 days leave in November, 1917.

On the 2nd of June, 1918, David was sentenced to 3 days of Field Punishment Number 2 for being Absent without Leave for one and a half hours. He was granted leave in England for 14 days in August, 1918, and then returned to the Field.

David was transferred to England for demobilisation on the 22nd of January, 1919. He sailed to Canada on the 10th of March, 1919, and was discharged on the 21st of March in Toronto with the rank of Sapper, "War Service Badge Class A". His discharge papers state he served in France & Belgium.

The 10th Battalion, Canadian Railway Troops, supported railway construction on the Western Front in the British sector in France from June, 1917, until the end of the war. The railways that were built were essential for transporting troops and supplying troops, often right up to the front lines.

David's military personnel file indicates that he was married at the time he enlisted. We have not located a marriage record yet but in his personnel file David states the name of his wife as Jennie Bernhardt. There are also records for two children where the mother is named as Jessie Gordon (this is likely Jennie with a maiden name of Gordon). Some of those documents indicate that a marriage took place in Penetanguishene, Ontario, around 1906 or 1907. Their son Stanley was born and died in 1912. They also had a daughter, Beatrice Catherine, who was born in 1913. We have no further information about her.

After his marriage to Jennie, David Stanley married a widow, Frances May (Kingsley) Hunt, on the 4th of November, 1933, in Jordan, Ontario. We know of two children; one boy that was born and died in 1935, and another son Robert David Stanley Bernhardt, born in 1938.

David Stanley Bernhardt died in 1960 (possibly on the 15th of June in Hamilton). He is buried at the Victoria Lawn Cemetery in St. Catharines, Ontario.

Most of the information here is from his military personnel file [LAC RG 150, Accession 1992-93/166, Box 1020 - 20]. This file has been digitized and can be found at <http://www.bac-lac.gc.ca>. Other information has been taken from MBQ Records. Information was also kindly provided by Stephanie Bernhardt.

Cannot believe it has been 20 years!

We thought of you today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday,
And days before that too.

We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories,
And your picture in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping,
We have you forever in our hearts.

The family of Charles Vincent are very proud to announce and congratulate Charles on the completion of his Masters of Business Administration at Queen's University, Smith School of Business, November 18, 2016.

Charles obtained his Juris Doctor degree from Queen's University Faculty of Law in 2013. After articling in Ottawa at Borden, Ladner Gervais, he was called to the Bar of Ontario on June 23, 2014. Charles practiced Aboriginal law in the Ottawa office of Devlin Gailus Westaway before returning to Queen's University in January, 2016.

On December 1st, Charles became an associate of Pape, Salter, Teillet, a leading boutique Aboriginal Law firm in Toronto where his legal practice will focus on implementing treaties, land claims and other important agreements that advance First Nations' self-government goals such as revenue resource sharing arrangements, business partnerships, equity ownership, specific claims and treaty land entitlements.

ENVIROTEX

"Recycling what matters"

Located at 1984 York Rd.
Mohawk Pentecostal Church

EnviroTex Recycling Inc. works on behalf of charities in Canada and around the world bringing clothing and funds for people in need

Proceeds from all items collected will go towards
Tyendinaga Mohawk
Pentecostal Church's building program

How the shed works

1. We place a used clothing drop off shed at a local Church or Community Centre.
2. Community members donate clothing by placing it in the shed.
3. We collect the clothing donations when the shed is full and distribute them locally in Canada. We give funding to your Church for the clothing collected at the shed.
4. They, in turn, use the money as they see fit. Our partners have used the money for youth groups, sports teams, mission projects, and other community-oriented activities.

Young Imaginations - Canada's Cultural Roots Project – Kanyen'keha:ka O:kara'shon'a

News from the Ohahase Education Centre

We have had a busy and engaging semester, and welcomed many new and/or returning students, as well as some new staff.

We were fortunate to be the recipient of two workshops with Pass the Feather (passthefeather.org). The first was a visual arts (painting) workshop with Mark Neal, and the second was a dreamcatcher-making workshop with Diio Brant. Our students were captivated and focused, and ended up making some beautiful pieces of art. Be sure to check out FNTI's website (fnti.org) or Facebook page for pictures. Nya:wen kowa Pass the Feather, Dawn Setford, Mark Neal, Diio Brant, and Ohahase teacher Kim Eysers for these wonderful opportunities!

Our FNTI colleague in the Justice Circle, Kevin Kunkel, also lent his skills to our program. Kevin engaged the students with some teachings about medicines, and facilitated a Medicine Pouch-making workshop. He was also guest speaker in our Native Studies class, presenting information on traditional and contemporary forms of justice. Nya:wen Kevin!

We also welcomed Community Justice Services student Sarah Leduc for a four-week placement. Sarah was a wonderful asset to our learning environment, and quickly found herself wearing several hats (as we all do!), as guest presenter, tutor, lunch cook, student supervisor, and all-round helper. Sarah also designed and developed a brochure highlighting local resources available for a variety of human needs (food, shelter, employment, health care, counselling services, etc). Nya:wen kowa Sarah for choosing Ohahase Education Centre as your choice for your placement!

The Young Imaginations drama project is continuing, and there is still time and space for young persons between the ages of 14 and 25 to join us. See the article about our project elsewhere in this newsletter, and be sure to call Evva Massey or Sandy Brant if you are interested in joining us. We meet at FNTI, 3:30 – 5:30, on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

We are busy planning for second semester, and look forward to offering a wide variety of new courses, including music, foods, philosophy, and physics. We also look forward to hosting an ATEP student in February.

Remember it's never too late to go back to school to get your Grade 12 Diploma! Come and see us at the Ohahase Education Centre if finishing high school is one of your new year's resolutions.
