SOUNDING THE AIDS ALARM IN FIRST NATION COMMUNITIES!

People across Canada are hearing the graphic details of Kecia Larkin, a nineteen year old native girl's short troubled life. The intense personal description tells of her childhood on the reserve that was marked by physical and sexual abuse, heavy drinking by age thirteen and racist taunts from white students at the high school she attended.

During two years of heavy drug use and prostitution, Kecia became involved with a partner who, unknown to her, was already infected with the HIV virus. Last year she was tested and the results came back positive.

Kecia is trying to cope with her medical condition and has been travelling to native communities to warn them they are not immune to Aids. Through the combined efforts of the Chiefs of Ontario and our community health representative, Kesia will be here to share her story with us on:

TYENDINAGA HOME SUPPORT FOR SENIORS

COOKING FOR ONE OR TWO:

Whether you have always cooked for a larger family or have never cooked at all, cooking for one or two is a new challenge. All you need are a few new habits, and some interesting ideas.

* Following reliable recipes ensures a good-tasting product. Need some ideas or inspiration? A book on cooking for one or two may be a worthwhile purchase. Or borrow one from your local Library.

* If you have a freezer, use it to store your bread, rolls and muffins. Take out only as much as you need each day. They keep fresher that way.

* Frozen vegetables are handy. You can take out the exact serving size you need and minimize wastage.

* Cook a meal today for yourself and a friend. Tomorrow your friend can prepare lunch or dinner. Arrange with several friends to get together for a potluck supper. Or, arrange to meet at one of the senior community centres which serve meals in your area.

* Make your favorite recipes for stews and casseroles, divide them into meal-size portions and freeze in plastic containers or re-usable foil plates. Warm them up as you need them. You could make all of your main meals for the week on one day if this method appeals to you.

A tribute to Leslie Claus

Editor

The Intelligencer

The Quinte area has lost an outstanding citizen.

Leslie Donald Claus (Les as he was known by his many friends) died Jan. 28 in his 82nd year.

He was a unique individual, "a modern Indian hero," to quote one of his Belleville friends.

A native of the Tyendinaga Territory, Les devoted a lifetime to improving the opportunities of the Mohawks and relating their concerns to the non-native community.

A teacher on the territory for many years, he taught and counselled hundreds of students.

The first native counsellor attached to the Hastings County Board of Education, he worked with Mohawks attending secondary school in Belleville. A knowledgeable kind counsellor, he was a role model. Les's knowledge of "his" students, their families and community helped many students adjust to education off the territory.

Even after his retirement, students in native studies classes at Moira, BCI and the Quinte Living Centre benefited from visits by Les and his wife Ella to describe what it was like growing up on Tyendinaga and Six Nations.

Les had a talent for winning friends. He and Ella were a vital link between the native and non-native communities.

Les loved his community. He spent a lifetime working on its behalf. A recent survey he and his wife completed helped to bring about the seniors residence near Deseronto.

Les loved Mohawk history. When Gord and Audrey Davies, aided by the students of Quinte Mohawk School, created three magnificent ceramic murals depicting the history of the Tyendinaga Mohawks, he was a valued consultant.

Les loved the arts. We have happy memories of him presenting his painting of the Mohawk Chapel at Tyendinaga to Queen Elizabeth II.

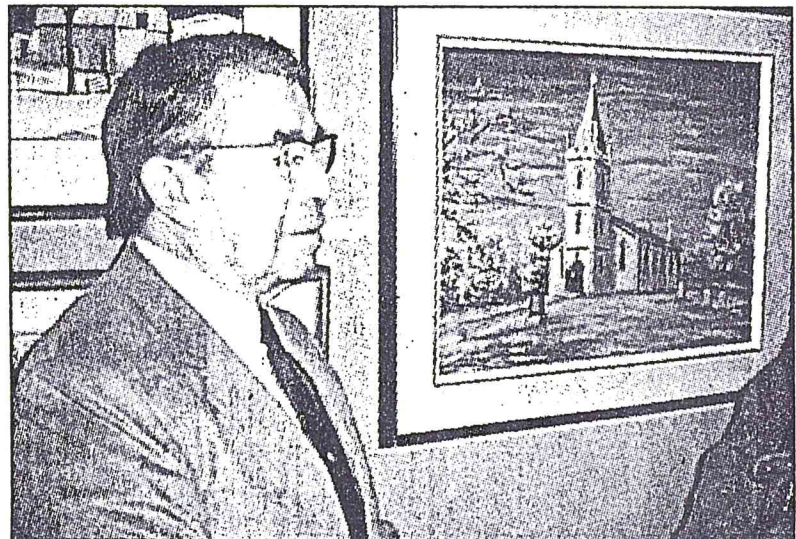

Les loved his family. He took pride in what each member was doing and was delighted when his son became principal of Quinte Mohawk School.

Les was a family man, a gentle man and a community man. He will be missed by all who knew him.

The sympathy of his many friends in the Belleville area goes out to his wife and the children, Ken, Mary and Deanna.

Friends are considering establishing an artistic scholarship in his memory.

Gerry and Bev Boyce
on behalf of his Belleville friends.

CARD OF THANKS

LESLIE CLAUS

The family of the late Leslie Claus of Tyendinga, wish to express their profound gratitude to friends and neighbours who, through their friendship, love and support, made the loss of husband, father, and grandfather easier to bear.

We are most grateful for the many lovely floral tributes, sympathy cards, memorial donations and gifts of food.

Special thanks to Dr. Berenzy and Dr. John Stock and all the nurses and staff on level six of the Belleville General Hospital for their attention and sincere concern.

Deep appreciation goes to the White & Morris Funeral Home, Deseronto, for the competent and dignified service. Thanks also to Mr. Andrew Maracle Sr. for the Mohawk prayer and to the Masonic Lodges, the Mohawk Singers and Dr. Ev. Dixon, sololist, for their touching tributes. TO ALL INTERESTED PARTIES:

For the past several months the Mohawk People's Progressive Party have been holding information meetings and although they are open meetings they have not been well publicized. As you are aware this Party had three of our candidates elected to Tyendinaga Council during the last Band Election. At our meetings these Councillors are available in a semi-formal forum to answer questions and concerns from all Reserve residents.

The meetings are very informative and assist the persons attending to understand what is happening in our Community. We would, at this time, like to extend an invitation to attend our next meeting which is scheduled for February 25, 1991. Meetings are held at 8:00 p.m. at the Mohawk Firehall. Please plan to join us.

Brant takes B-A-R Shootout

Local classic league bowler Al Brant, who recently rolled a 299 game at Terrace Garden Lanes, downed local PBA member Mike Lessar in the championship match of the Bowl-A-Roll Sunday Shootout on December 16th. Brant earned $450 and Lessar $225.

On his way to victory, Brant also defeated Warren Guernsey, Deric Houppert (high seed with 543 for two), and Mike Marcanio.

High game of the tournament was rolled by veteran right-hander Bill Rybak. He posted his first career 300 game. Read his story on page 3 in our City Lights Restaurant and Lounge Honor Score Section.

There were 80 entries at this event, and only a $20 entry fee is required for the two-game qualifier.

Al Brant averaged 229 for six games to claim the December 16th B-A-R Sunday Shootout and win $450.

CONGRATULATIONS AL ON YOUR BOWLING ACHIEVEMENT !

AL IS THE SON OF SALLY BRANT AND THE LATE BENNET BRANT

FROM THE HISTORY FILES

Have you ever wondered where the name TYENDINAGA came from?

This is a portrait of Mohawk Chief Thayendanega (Joseph Brant) and this is a reproduction of a 1776 painting by George Romney. TYENDINAGA RESERVE was named after "Thavendanega".
