Dear Don and Charles,

On behalf of the Department of German and its choir, I wanted to express to the Mohawk Choir our gratitude for the warm and wonderful hospitality extended to us this past Sunday. Our students had an unforgettable experience which began with the delicious and ample meal and culminated in the exchange of musical offerings in such a magnificent setting. Our young people are still enthusing about the evening three days later and hoping that we might be able to repeat the experience in a year's time.

Once more our heart-felt thanks for the friendly reception and the generous and delicious meal and refreshments. It was a most memorable event for all of us and we would appreciate it if you would convey our gratitude to the members of your choir.

Yours sincerely,

/mcc

EXAM:

Ex-Grandview inmates to be compensated

By The Canadian Press

Former inmates of a reform school for teenage girls will be eligible for compensation regardless of the outcome of a sexual-assault trial of its former chief psychologist, Ontario's social services minister said Wednesday.

"Under criminal compensation rules, a conviction is not necessary in order to get compensation," Marion Boyd told a news conference at the provincial legislature in Toronto.

"What is necessary is a police investigation."

A two-year investigation into allegations of widespread abuse by guards and staff at Grandview training school in Cambridge, Ont., led to the arrest of Robert Ross this week.

Ross, 59, of Ottawa, was chief psychologist at the school in southwestern Ontario from the mid-1960s until 1976 — when it closed after complaints of sexual abuse became public.

He made a brief court appearance Tuesday in Kitchener to face 21 charges — including rape, indecent assault and gross indecency.

Police involved in the Canada-wide investigation have said more arrests are likely.

"We have more people we are investigating but I won't speculate on when more charges might be laid,"

Insp. John Beecock of the Waterloo Region police said Wednesday.

"If we get into crystal ball gazing we're just throwing away our credibility."

Allegations aimed at Grandview have also claimed political victims — an NDP cabinet minister and a senior aide to Premier Bob Rae have both resigned after links to the investigation were exposed.

Boyd expressed optimism the compensation offer will prove to

'I think it will help them to understand how seriously we take their complaints and how seriously we take the responsibility to deal with these issues in a very clear way.'

Social Services Minister
Marlon Boyd

the 64 women who say they were abused while at Grandview that the Ontario government is working in good faith.

"I think it will help them to understand how seriously we take their complaints and how seriously we take the responsibility to deal with these issues in a very clear way," she said.

Boyd acknowledged it may take years to settle the claims.

A project manager has been assigned to help the women identify their needs — including financial compensation — and to provide an opportunity to ensure other former inmates feel enough support to come forward with their claims, she said.

After the arrest one of the former inmates said: "it's almost like restoring your faith in society, in authority."

Ross was released on bail and ordered to return to court March 10. He had already been relieved of his duties as a criminology professor at the University of Ottawa pending the outcome of the police investigation.

The Grandview case has also created political fallout at the provincial legislature, tying up the daily question period and prompting the resignations of two members of Rae's NDP government.

Indigenous Survival International

NOTICE

Indigenous Survival International (Canada) would like to advise the general membership of the Assembly of First Nations, the Metis National Council, the Native Council of Canada, the Native Women's Association of Canada, and the Inuit Tapirisat of Canada that we are coordinating an important gathering in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan - February 25-28, 1993. Location: Sheraton Cavalier, 612 Spadina Crescent East, Telephone # (306) 652-6770.

Entitled "Traditional Knowledge and Aboriginal Self-Government," the conference is designed to provide a forum in which to hear the views of traditional Aboriginal harvesters of renewable resources (i.e., hunters, trappers, fishermen and gatherers). We wish to invite Aboriginal harvesters and any one else who has an interest in environmental policy making by Aboriginal governments, or in any related aspect, to attend. The views and recommendations heard at this conference will be recorded for presentation to the Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples.

There will also be a general meeting on ISI (Canada), to discuss the function and mandate and possibly the restructuring of ISI (Canada) itself. The conference will last two and a half days.

For more information, please contact Gary LaPlante, Communications Coordinator, ISI (Canada) at: (306) 665-5527 or by Fax: (306) 664-8851.

A BAY OF QUINTE PRODUCTION

Written, Produced and Directed by Shelly Niro and Anna Gronau ©1993

16mm, 26 minutes

Cast: Elijah Harper, Elizabeth Burning, Debra Duxtater, Beverley Miller, Elizabeth Duxtater Cinematography: Adam Swica, John Holosko C.S.C. Music: Michael Duxtater, James M. Miller

A Celebration

of the strength, wisdom, beauty and humour of Native women
of Native culture and people, surviving and thriving

It Starts With a Whisper was produced in the Six Nations/Brantford area, with an all-Native cast, and features locations on the Grand River which runs through the Six Nations Reserve. The film blends traditional Iroquois imagery, music and themes with motifs from contemporary, secular life. An original score, and innovative visuals make It Starts With a Whisper a delight to watch, as well as a timely challenge to movie stereotypes of First Nations people.

Eighteen-year-old Shanna Sabbath, who has grown up on the Reserve must now decide what path to follow in life. The choice between traditional and contemporary values seems impossible. She feels all alone, yet she is watched over by ancestral spirits - three "matriarchal clowns" - who sometimes appear in the form of her outrageous aunts, Emily, Molly and Pauline. The aunts take Shanna on a mythic journey to Niagara Falls. The waters that whispered along the banks of the Grand River have become the thundering torrents of Niagara Falls, as Native people around the world celebrate their cultures and gain empowerment.

Her aunts' warmth and humour, and a dream-like encounter with a well-known Native leader help Shanna realize she is loved, and is entitled to live her life, remembering and respecting the people of the past and traditional ways.

ENGLISH BISHOPS TARGET TRAPPERS

London

About 40 Anglican bishops in England are support a campaign against the fur trade based on the premise that it is cruel to animals.

The bishops also cite the immorality of killing animals for fashion and the importance of good stewardship of animals to support of their stand.

The most senior of the bishops, Archbishop Ailwyn Jones of Wales, has written the foreword to a new book which argues that animal welfare should be a leading Christian issue.

An anti-fur campaign organization called Lynx says it intends to lobby the government to ban the keeping of animals for fur.

In Canada, Bishop Christopher Williams of the Arctic wonders if all 40 Church of England bishops involved in the anti-fur campaign are vegetarians.

"Their support is probably misplaced and their stand based on misinformation," Bishop Williams said.

He added that in the case of Canada's Inuit people, who make up a large proportion of the population in his diocese, "the gathering of seals and animals for food and skins is not and has never been any more cruel than killing beef or pigs or anything else."

Bishop noted that Canada's seal hunt was virtually eliminated because of an international campaign based on anti-cruelty sentiments.

This, he said, has had "an extremely detrimental effect on the economy of native peoples and has driven many of them to the welfare lines."

Bishop Christopher Williams.

NEW SUN RISING

*My spirit soars like raging wind
When I think of Him
The agony He suffered
The hearts and lives He changed.*

*He was thrown in prison
By the ruling powers
Chained to a dungeon wall
Fetters tore His flesh for hours.*

*They did not recognize
With Whom they dealt.
Like the people (in past ages) they gloried
In the pain " the Holy Ones " all felt.*

*For forty years He suffered
That's how long His earthly ministry did last
The wisdom of His teachings
Are quickly coming --- to be passed.*

*This planets rumbling that we hear today
For justice, unity and such,
Are fallout from the Peace Plan, issued by
The One we love so very much.*

*Thousands of His followers
Because they listened to His call
To free the world of injustice
Were tortured and murdered one and all.*

*Still they gladly paved the way
The corner stone they set in place
They laid His firm foundation
To unify the human race.*

*The Prophetic Cycle hath now ended
The Eternal Truth hath come -
We are living in the dawning
Of the brightest Rising Sun.*

VOLUNTEERS GREATLY NEEDED!!!!

The Mohawk Firemen's Wives Auxiliary has been in existence since June 1, 1978. This auxiliary consists of volunteers from the community of Tyendinaga, working for Tyendinaga. The Auxiliary began on June 1st of 1978 with a one dollar donation and over the past 14 and 1/2 years the Firemen's Wives Auxiliary members have raised money by organizing dances, craft sales, bake sales, yard sales, raffle tickets, etc. The money raised has been donated to such causes as victims of house/business fires, accident victims, sponsoring graduating students, Christmas food baskets, the Food Bank, and other needy causes.

Since every dollar raised by the Auxiliary goes back into our community of Tyendinaga, we are at this time seeking new community members who may have a few spare minutes or possibly some fund raising ideas to help our cause. The Auxiliary meets the first Wednesday of each month at 7:30 p.m. No connection to the Mohawk Fire Department is necessary to join the Auxiliary.

For further information please feel free to call Shirley Maracle at 962-6137.

Opportunity Knocks Since Crime Won't!

As a follow up to the "Opportunity Knocks" add in the last Newsletter, I wish to say the response has been good to the alarms. These alarms are totally portable and reasonably priced and can be moved anywhere you wish to take them, unlike wired in alarms, they are not motion detectors so they do not create false alarms.

The SMALL BUSINESS and HOME ALARM will give you and your family a sense of security and protection and peace of mind as you retire for the night.

These alarms are designed to work when there is forced entry through any window, door or patio door in your home while you are home or away.

The CAR ALARMS are also totally portable and not motion detectors and so can only be set off by forced entry through either the doors, the windows, the hood, or the trunk. Lock our vehicle and arm the alarm when you leave it parked, and only you can get back in without the alarm sounding.

The personal attack alarms are to be carried on your person either on your belt or in your pocket or in your purse, while shopping or jogging or underground parking, while on trips or public transportation riders. They are designed to send out an ear piercing 104 decibel alarm when activated and only the holder of the pin can stop it. For every Sports Paal Alarm that is sold the Special Olympics for the handicapped receives $1.00 from the company. These alarms are designed to protect you against purse snatchers, muggers, rapists, and a lot of other unwanted advances toward you. During this time of the recession and the economy with as many unemployed people the risk of crime and theft becomes greater every day. If we can help your situation become better by purchasing an alarm, please call us for full demonstration, free of charge of our products. We are available most days or evenings in your home or business or our home, we can also provide short videos of the company and products and brochures to any group or committees wishing to see them. Please feel free to call and leave your name, number and organization.

Thank-You

DON OR LILLIAN BRANT 396-2424
