ASSEMBLY OF FIRST NATIONS

ROUNDTABLE MEETING WITH MINISTERS ON TAXATION MAY 29, 1995

PREAMBLE

WE THE FIRST NATIONS OF TURTLE ISLAND were put here by the Creator and are the Original Sovereign Peoples of this land. Through our sacred teachings we have learned to survive by sharing our resources with one another. This equitable distribution of wealth has always been and still is the jurisdiction of our First Nations. We have never ceded or surrendered our inherent right to the Crown in Right of Great Britain, Canada or Her Provinces.

THEREFORE:

OUR OBJECTIVE IS TO ATTAIN THE RECOGNITION AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF OUR INHERENT RIGHTS. THESE RIGHTS FLOW FROM OUR ORIGINAL RELATIONSHIP WITH AND OCCUPATION OF THE LAND. OUR INHERENT RIGHTS HAVE BEEN RECOGNIZED IN TREATIES, AND EXIST INDEPENDENTLY WHERE TREATY RELATIONSHIPS HAVE NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED. OUR GOAL IS TO REAFFIRM THESE RIGHTS THROUGH THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A BI-LATERAL PROCESS WITH CANADA.

OBJECTIVE:

Our objective for the Ministers' Roundtable meeting on Taxation is to obtain the commitment of the Government of Canada to a process to resolve the following:

1. Government to Government Relationship

The relationship of mutual respect as reflected in the treaty development process between the First Nations and the Government of Canada must be revisited and affirmed and must be based on principles of mutual respect, honour and integrity.

2. First Nations Jurisdiction

We, the First Nations, have never ceded or surrendered our jurisdiction over the redistribution of wealth and resources and legislation such as the Indian Act never extinguished or limited this jurisdiction.

The power to raise revenues through taxation within Traditional First Nation Territory is within exclusive jurisdiction of the First Nation Governments. Until agreements are reached regarding the scope and territorial jurisdiction of First Nations, all taxes collected from non-Indians, including non-Indian businesses, corporations, and lessees on reserve lands, shall be returned to the respective First Nation.

We, the First Nations, are resolved to ensure that Canada commits to a bilateral process for the establishment of mechanisms to implement this jurisdiction.

3. Tax Immunity

Our jurisdiction over and immunity from taxation is part of the sovereignty, treaty and inherent rights of First Nations.

We were promised that First Nations Citizens would not pay taxes to the Crown, no matter where they reside.

We have never assented to the terms of citizenship of Canada nor have we ever consented to allow any other government to tax our citizens.

4. Mechanisms

Internal Consultation Process

Consultation must be conducted by First Nations with First Nations, and political positions brought back to the political table by First Nation representatives.

First Nations citizens will engage in an internal consultation process that will represent the collective interests of First Nation Governments, as they relate to the inherent authority of First Nations jurisdiction of which taxation is a component. First Nations reserve the right to carry on dialogue with other governments.

Moratorium

A moratorium must be placed on all Revenue Canada's assessments, audits, collections and legal actions. This moratorium would extend to the implementation and enforcement of the current Revenue Canada Guidelines and amendments to tax legislation affecting Citizens of First Nations directly or indirectly.

The impetus to reach agreement within the established time frames could be created by a 6 to 8 months moratorium on proceedings and taxation assessments against First Nations, Citizens of First Nations and First Nation businesses during the process.

Joint Working Group

The Assembly of First Nations has been mandated by the Chiefs-in-Assembly to develop with Canada a framework process to address jurisdictional matters relating to revenue-raising authorities, including taxation.

We propose that the Federal Government appoint four (4) senior representatives, one each from the Departments of Finance, Revenue, DIAND and Justice to work with 4 representatives from the Assembly of First Nations to explore taxation issues as they relate to Aboriginal and Treaty rights, government to government relationship and First Nation jurisdictions.

This group would be mandated by the Government of Canada and Assembly of First Nations to recommend a framework process aimed at resolution of the issues and to produce a report within 6 months to be concurrently tabled with the Federal Cabinet and with the Assembly of First Nations/Chiefs in Assembly.

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Currently, First Nations, their citizens and businesses are left with little alternative other than to address disputes before the Canadian Courts. This forum is both costly and lacks credibility with First Nations. A process is required to resolve disputes relating to taxation in relation to First Nation citizens, businesses, corporations, institutions or governments which is agreed to bilaterally by the Chiefs in Assembly on behalf of the First Nations.

Sadly, on March 15, 1995 Mark Hart passed away. It was a peaceful passing at his home where he wanted to be, surrounded by his family.

Unfortunately, a match for Mark wasn't found in time to save him. The greatest legacy this young life can leave is the hope that somewhere a match will be found for another Mark.

We would like to take this opportunity once again to thank each one of you who worked so hard and so long and who contributed in so many ways to try to find a match for Mark. We hope you will continue to help the 9,000 other people who are waiting for a bone marrow match. We won't stop working towards this goal. We need your continued help and support.

The newsletter you are receiving with this letter was our regularly scheduled edition. Unfortunately it is late because of the circumstances of the week of March 15. We've also included an article from The Toronto Star in case you missed it that day.

Once again thanks so much,

Mark Hart, 17, loses cancer fight

By Nicolaas van Rijn staff reporter

Mark Hart was 13 when the odds turned against him.

And while he never really had a chance, the athletic Scarborough student made the most of the four years remaining to him, cheering friends and family while fighting the leukemia ravaging his system.

"It was a big shock, hardly 13 years old, to find out you have leukemia — and you don't even know what it is," his step-mother Audrey Pollock-Hart said yesterday. "Yet he never complained."

Hart, who died Wednesday at the Scarborough home of his mother Carol Hart, was buried yesterday after a service in Holy Blossom Temple.

To honor the 17-year-old's memory, and carry on the fight to find donors for others with the disease, a previously planned Match for Mark bone marrow testing clinic will be held March 26.

The clinic, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Temple Sinai, 210 Wilson Ave., is open to anyone age 17 to 50 and in general good health.

Born in Toronto, Hart "was your typical child and student" until his illness, Pollock-Hart said. "And then came the diagnosis. It was devastating. He was a very quiet boy, and he didn't talk a lot about it — even right to the end.

"But he had a great inner strength."

Classmates at Albert Campbell Collegiate in Scarborough, where Hart went to school for several years, quickly pitched in to help find a Match for Mark, as the campaign to find a bone marrow donor was quickly dubbed.

Earlier this year, students raised $1,200 to help pay for the $50-per-person cost of testing for bone marrow donor matches by holding a dance marathon.

Because his father Russell is of eastern European Jewish descent, and his mother of North American Mohawk descent, the search wasn't an easy one, Pollock-Hart said.

But there were highlights during the four-year battle that gave Hart new strength, she added.

A basketball fan who enjoyed shooting baskets at home with his brother David, 19, whenever he had the strength, Hart met Toronto Raptors' vice-president Islah Thomas earlier this year.

And, after spending Christmas in hospital, last month—thanks to arrangements made by the Children's Wish Foundation— Hart and his brother went on a week-long Caribbean cruise.

"He had the time of his life," his brother said. "We started in Miami, went on to San Juan, St. Thomas, St. Martin and back to Miami. You couldn't tell there was anything wrong with him—he was having the most fun."

After returning home early in March, Hart realized the end wouldn't be long, Pollock-Hart said.

He returned to the Hospital for Sick Children for blood platelet transfusions. But, his stepmother said, "he knew it was no good."

"He wanted to come home, and on Wednesday, around lunch, he did."

He died that night.

Because blood tests for bone marrow matches cost so much, the family is asking that donations in Hart's memory be made out to the Elizabeth Lue Memorial Fund (Mark' Hart), and mailed to A Match for Mark, 700 Briar Hill Ave., Toronto M6B 1L3. Income tax receipts will be issued for donations of $10 or more.

Rapid Lake, Quebec -- May 12, 1995 -- Five young Algonquins of Barriere Lake are graduating today from the First Nations Tribal Justice Institute (FNTJI) of Mission, B.C. lan Wawatie, 21, Victor Thusky, 21, Eric Charbonneau, 19, Jeff Ratt, 23, and Jason Thusky, 20, successfully completed their year of tribal police studies. They studied all facets of basic police training as given to municipal and RCMP recruits.

The FNTJI is an established post-secondary Indian-controlled institution. It is unique in Canada because it provides police training and First Nations' cultural awareness classes, as well as spiritual support.

The Algonquin community of Barriere Lake sees this graduation as an important step toward establishing its own Algonquin police system.

RABIES

May 1995

May is Rabies Awareness Month

May has been declared Rabies Awareness Month to help increase public knowledge of how to prevent and avoid rabies. Local agencies are encouraged to promote this month so that people will be better able to protect themselves, their children and their pets.

Southern Ontario once held the unhappy title of "Rabies Capital of North America." In 1967, the Ontario and federal governments combined resources to ensure that research into the cause and spread of the disease went hand-in-hand with measures to protect the public. Using an oral vaccine dropped from airplanes, the Ministry of Natural Resources (MNR) has been immunizing red foxes, the main carrier of rabies to livestock and pets who may then pass on the disease to humans.

Is the threat of rabies disappearing?

- Not yet. Although MNR is moving toward stamping out fox rabies, a variant of rabies spread by raccoons is moving quickly through the eastern United States. Unless it is stopped, this type will spread into Ontario.
- To create a protective barrier, MNR has inoculated raccoons against rabies in areas where diseased animals are most likely to enter Ontario. Researchers are working feverishly to develop an oral vaccine for raccoons so that aerial vaccination could be used to eliminate the disease over large areas, if it were to reach Ontario. It is important that people know what to expect so that they can take precautions against spreading the disease by unwittingly bringing raccoons in from outside Ontario or moving them around inside the province.

What do we do in the meantime?

- Being aware of how we can protect ourselves from rabies is our number one defence. You should vaccinate your pets, avoid stray or wild animals, and call your doctor and your local health unit if you think you may have been in contact with a rabid animal.
- These precautionary measures involve various government departments and the veterinary profession working together in the fight against rabies. They are members of a Raccoon Rabies Task Force which is helping communities throughout Ontario develop a local action plan for managing any localized raccoon rabies outbreak and to prevent it from spreading. Several communities already have such a plan in place.

• Educational packages on rabies and raccoons are being designed for use by teachers and students at the junior and intermediate levels.

Fact sheets are available from the Ministry of Natural Resources Information Centres at: Room M1-73, Macdonald Block, 900 Bay Street, Toronto, Ontario M7A 2C1, telephone (416) 314-2000, fax (416) 314-1593 or at P.O. # Activities & Information from the CHR Program

○ A BIG THANK YOU ○

On Saturday June 3, Access Challenge '95 was held at the Quinte Mohawk School gym. Our focus this year was the children from Daycare to Grades 8. Activities were set up so the children could experience what it is like for individuals who are challenged. The Access Challenge was a success, with approximately 30 plus children attending the morning activities.

Many thanks goes out to our volunteers: Tracey Gazley; Betry Carr-Braint; Alanna Maracle; Barb Maracle; Kathy Brant & Rick; Angela Waracle; Tonya Maracle and Sonny Maracle. Thanks to Marve Bernhardt for coming in for the morning and to Q.M.S. for the use of the school gym.

We appreciate the following people taking the time to come and speak to the children about the difficulties they face on a daily basis: Terry Maracle; Larry VanNorman; Kyle Maracle; Tracey & Leah Moon and Anne & Amber Keith.

Thank-you is extended to local businesses for their generous donations: York Road Restaurant; Mrs. Herb's; Mad Banana; Hill's Fruit Market; Land O'Lakes Water Services; MBQ; Savings Station; GlenWil; Sunrise; Bayview Variety; Village Variety; Pat's Variety; Deseronto Area Resource Centre; and Kelly's HomeCare Centre. #### JUNE IS SENIORS MONTH

WHAT IS AGING?

Aging is the process each of us go through, gathering experience, enhancing our lives through knowledge and physical skills. This wisdom we obtain makes us capable to make sensible and useful decisions about ourselves and our lives.

It is said that life is what you make of it. The fullness and richness of our lives is in our hands. The more control we have over our lives, the more enjoyable they will be. The amount of independence we have is directly related to how active we are in body, mind and spirit. Keeping mentally and physically active reduces the rate at which we lose intellectual and physical capacity with increasing years, and enables us to more completely enjoy and increase the quality of the golden years of our lives.

June is Senior Citizen's Month. This month, let's remember our elder's because we are all aging; some have just been at it longer than others.

MOCCASIN TRAIL NEWS

Greetings Community! On Monday May 15, 1995, our community took part in ParticipACTION's ACTIVE LIVING CAMPAIGN 95 by participating in the Schneider's Lifestyle Sneaker Day activity by wearing their sneakers to work and doing something ACTIVE. At the end of the day there was a Sneaker contest at the track at Quinte Mohawk School.

And what happened you ask? Approximatelyely 55 participants among staff and community admitted towearing Sneakers, and ten showed up for the contest. Yes it was a small turnout for the contest, but those who did participate were very enthusiastic! The categories and winners in the Sneaker contest were:

The Biggest Sneakers were Mat Vincent's with his size 12's, winning a HEALTHY LIFESTYLE HAT for his big effort...er sneakers.

Most Colourful was Norma Maracle with her 3 tone Sneakers borrowed from her daughter Suzanne...Thanks Suzanne. Could this be vicarious participation? Norma won a HEALTHY LIFESTYLE T-SHIRT for her efforts.

The Oldest Sneakers category was filled by April Loft (daughter of Greg & Darlene), who wore a prime example of some very well used Sneakers. April won a HEALTHY LIFESTYLE HAT for her efforts.

The Smallest Sneakers in our contest were worn by none other than Kirby Maracle (son of Carl & Colleen). Kirby won a HEALTHY LIFESTYLE MUG, he says to drink his hot chocolate in.

Last but not least, the most Unique category was filled by Linda (Jake) from the Daycare, who wore her Pickerel Season Sneakers that she crafted together with her own hands. They had eyes, fins, scales, and a tail too. Linda won a HEALTHY LIFESTYLE T-SHIRT for this grand effort. NAI:WEN TO ALL OUR WINNERS, KEEP MAKING ACTIVE LIVING CHOICES!

Our judges for the Sneaker Contest were Tom Vincent, Lawyer in our community, Colleen Maracle, Recreation Committee Member, and Donnie C. Maracle, Social Services Director. NAI:WEN to our judges, thankyou for supporting the CHR Programs efforts in encouraging ACTIVE, HEALTHY LIVING.

Just another reminder that lacing up on Schneider's Lifestyle Sneaker Day was only just the beging of your decision to participate in ACTIVE, HEALTHY LIVING. There are also intellectual reasons for being active. Apart from the better known physical and mental health benefits of physical activity, new evidence indicates that being active also makes sense from an economic perspective. Cont'd...

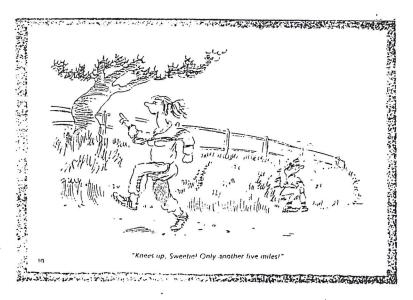

The Canadian Fitness and Lifestyle Research Institute recently calculated that roughly $24 billion in Canadian health care costs could be saved if the 40 percent of Canadians who are now inactive became active. Intellectual reasons are not enough for adopting and maintaining an active lifestyle though. The heart needs to be in it too.

Here at Tyendinaga Territory, Diabetes is occurring more and more frequently, and to younger and younger people. Cancer is another disease that is increasing at an appalling rate and has taken so many of our valuable resources .....OUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBOURS IN THE COMMUNITY. This is why the CHRs are always promoting the Moccasin Trail Walking Program......as a preventative approach against these unhealthy lifestyle diseases.

Your involvement will show an awareness and enthusiasm for active living. This means being ACTIVE where you LIVE, WORK AND PLAY. Help our community get healthy, make an active choice today and join the Moccasin Trail Walking Program. The next mileage day is Tuesday June 6. 1995, here at the Health Centre. Or come in any clinic day (Tuesday) when a nurse is here, call ahead just to be sure 967-3603. Our mileage day's are always the first Tuesday of each month.

We need to take responsibility for our own health and do something active and healthy for our body, mind and soul. Our children are watching.....we are the role models and as role models we need to do this for the next generation and the generations to follow.

Enough lecturing already...here's some cartoons to enjoy.

Manitoulin Island Tournament Tyendinaga Ladies Volleyball Team 1995

The Ontario Aboriginal Recreation Council hosted Volleyball Team Ontario tryouts at Manitoulin Island on April 29th and 30th. Tyendinaga Territory First Nations Ladies entered a team in that tournament and those members were:

Ms. Angel Maracle Ms. Melanie Hill Ms. Lorrie Maracle Ms. Vanessa Maracle Ms. Rachel Claus Ms. Lacey Maracle Ms. April Brant Ms. Jennifer Maracle

Although Tyendinaga did not place in the top two, a fourth place position is definately an achievement. At that tournament the level of volleyball played certainly was reflective of the talent in the sport within Native Aboriginal Communities. The team is to be congratulated for their interest and the manner in which they represented our Territory. The skills are definitely there, now it is just a matter of putting them together and we have two years to prepare for the next Aboriginal Games. LOOK OUT OTTAWA! Without the help of the following sponsors and parents, the trip could not have been funded. Thank you for your support and encouragement. The 7&1/2 hour venture north was a positive experience for our young ladies as most had not been to that community. Again, I thank you; nia:wen, Ms. Barbara Brant (coach).

PEEWEE FRIENDSHIP LACROSSE TOURNAMENT May 28, 1995 - Gloucester

Chris Brinklow (Goalie) Mike Buxton Jesse Hill Kory Brant-Parkin Jamie Aylesworth

Tyler Brant Andrew Maracle Nicholas Brinklow KAIDARA

Johnathon Andress

The Peewees put on an incredible display of sportsmanship and lacrosse skills at the Friendship Tournament held at the Barrett Arena in Gloucester. With only 7 players of their own, they had to call up a couple of players from the minors.

The first game against Nepean 1 was fast paced with Mike Buxton scoring the first goal unassisted, then coming back to score the second with an assist from Jamie Aylesworth. Jamie wouldn't be outdone so he came back to score his own goal (a first in his lacrosse career) with Mike assisting on this one. At this point the score is tied 3-3 but Nepean was able to sneak in there for a final goal with two minutes to spare and score for a 4-3 victory.

The only major injury in this game was when Johnathon Andress ran into a screw on the boards and had to be rushed to the hospital to have 4 stitches put into his leg. But this did not stop him, as he came back for the second game to help cheer the rest of the team on.

The second game was played against Nepean 2. Again our boys are out there with far fewer players than the other team, but they still will not be stopped. This was a very hard hitting game with 19 penalties for the opposing team. But, our boys will not be intimidated. They scored the only 2 goals in the game, with Jesse Hill scoring the first goal, assisted by Mike Buxton. And just to make sure we had the game in hand Jesse scores the second goal assisted by Tyler and non other than Chris Brinklow, our goalie. Chris' next plan is to score his own goal, while still playing goal.

Because of this win, we are now into the 'B' Consolation Championship game which we are playing against another Nepean team. Still short on players but not on talent they put on a spectacular show of sportsmanship and lacrosse skills. This was a good checking game by both teams. The only goal to be scored by Tyendinaga was by Jamie (after that first, he cannot be stopped now) and once again assisted by Chris (who is playing goalie?). Nepean won the 'B' championship with a total score of 2-1. This team knows all about sportsmanship because at the end of the game their goalie came over to our goalie and told him he was 'invincible'.

After watching the tournament that saying goes for the whole team. They are a bunch of hard running, hard hitting, never out of breath lacrosse players. From being hit in the leg with a lacrosse ball to listening to some comments (??!!?!) from the other teams, our defence which consisted of Kory Brant-Parkin and Andrew Maracle got in enough good checks to help out their goalie while he was busy trying to score.

And for the player from the minors, Nicholas Brinklow, he just couldn't figure out why he couldn't hit the other team on the head or in the legs with his stick. Just kept throwing his arms up in the air and asking "What? Why me? What did I do?".

Everyone would like to thank the coach, Dewayne Maracle, and a couple of interested parents who felt the coach needed assistants, Ron Parkin and Alvin (Skin) Maracle for the great job on the bench. Just one more note for the coach, could you teach a certain player on the team what it means to get into the 'box'.

Keep up the good work boys, and it would be real nice if we could see more Peewees out. Ask them - it's lots of fun.

Its

NATIVE AMERICANS

The above is the title of an article in Charisma magazine in May '95. Charisma reported in part...

...Native Americans...representing 31 tribes from 22 States and Canada, witnessed the Holy Spirit's power to bring reconciliation and unity while they networked...(together with non-Natives)...at services and workshops organized by Spirit Alive Ministries...in Tahlequah, Oklahoma....(Feb. 15-19).

More than 500 people... learned to reach Native Americans for Christ, to counsel Natives in crisis and how to build a Native ministry. Native recording artist Pam Thum (also) sang at the event...

...Spirit Alive Ministries formally inducted a board of elders and recognized Indian ministers and evangelists for "the courage and faithfulness that (they) have displayed in serving God...in breaking a trail...when being 'Indian' wasn't popular."

... also inducted was its first associate elder, Tom Koons, a white missionary who has served the Navajo tribe since 1959. Koons said. "I have never seen a gathering of this diversity before."

"We saw this as a founding conference, as ministries and talents came together," (Ross Maracle, founder of Spirit Alive) said. "We (Natives) have been disunified, and God is bringing us together." *

Try It - You Will Like It!

Something to think about in 1995

An American college professor is trying to make a difference in the personal development of his students. Part of his curriculum contains a very unique assignment. He asks his students, over a two-week period, to daily do "acts of random senseless kindness."

One girl gave up a parking spot at the mall. The other driver's mouth dropped open as she shook her head in amazement when the younger woman motioned for her to take the spot both were wanting. She shared with her class how good she felt, walking those extra blocks from where she had to park.

Acts of random senseless kindness happened in Canada also. Some Victoria high school students recently brought grateful smiles to several motorists by putting money in their expired parking meters.

Wouldn't it be great to report at the end of '95 our nation, overtaken by random senseless acts of kindness instead of random senseless acts of violence? Perhaps your family or church would take up this
