RE: TYENDINAGA MOHAWK COUNCIL'S REQUEST FOR TELEPHONE BOOKS
DATE: MARCH 5, 1987

*****

On March 5, 1987, Bell Canada contacted me in regards to our letter of December 1986 on the above mentioned issue.

For people caught in the middle of telephone districts, Bell Canada produces "White Page Directories."

The directories must be requested by the Customer.

For those in "396" area and who want "962" or Belleville directory, contact

Residence - 1 - 800 - 267 - 0981

Business - 1 - 800 - 267 - 0995

For those in "962" area and who want a "396" or Kingston Directory, contact 966-8000.

Requests should be made after April 30, 1987 as new directories are being produced.

Thank you.

DRAFT RESOLUTION

MOTION # 6

WHEREAS in the legends and history of our people and First Nations fire and its light has been an extremely powerful symbol; and

WHEREAS in our traplines, in our fishing and hunting camps fire and its light is a symbol of the survival of our people; and

WHEREAS the First Ministers' Conference is fast approaching and our people in our communities are interested in some form of participation; and

WHEREAS lighting a candle is a small but very significant way in which our people can be a part of the First Minister's Conference where the rights and the survival of our people as a distinct people will be discussed;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED as follows:

- (1) that on the eve of the First Ministers' Conference every First Nations household across this land light a candle and have it lit during FMC to demonstrate the continued strength and survival of our people in this land
- (2) that prior to the First Ministers' Conference the Chiefs and representatives of this Special Assembly request every household in their communities to hold the vigil and to light a candle to demonstrate the continued strength and survival of our people;
- (3) that I.C.M.I, N.C.C. and M.N.C. and other national aboriginal organizations be requested to support and participate in this vigil;
- (4) that the religious leaders and the congregations of the churches that have and continue to support our efforts at the First Ministers' Conferences be requested to support and participate in this vigil;
- (5) that the elders of the Assembly of First Nations be appointed the keepers of this fire.
