HEALTH

DEFINING HEALTH FOR TYENDINAGA

On February 19, 2007 community members were invited to a strategy meeting on community health.

As a result of this historic meeting a number of health issues and priorities were identified. It was decided at this meeting to form a retreat of health providers within our community that would compile issues identified and then develop a strategy to meet the health needs for the community. This group was tasked with this challenge and then to present their work back to the community at a later date.

I had the pleasure and honor to attend, as the Mohawk Council Health portfolio holder, March 9-11, 2007 in Brighton, Ontario, where the retreat was held. In total there were ten attendees, 2 members from council, myself and Councillor Roy Maracle, CAO Rod Jeffries, Lynn Brant, Karen Lewis, Janet Brant Nelles, Jeanne Hebert, Scott Maracle, Suzanne Brant and Luke Jeffries representing the youth of the community.

It was a tremendous experience, despite the fact that it was the weekend, all of those in attendance, put forth a great deal of energy to the work at hand. The work groups completed their tasks with enthusiasm and excellent understanding of the direction, facilitator Rod Jeffries challenged them with. Lively discussions not only during the working group functions but at lunch and breaks added to the coming together process. I was very happy to witness and participate in this exciting and stimulating exercise. It illustrated to me how much can be accomplished by working together for a common cause, the health of our community members. Thanks for your hard work team!

Councillor Blaine Loft

TYENDINAGA HEALTH STATEMENT

Health is a gift and it is our responsibility to take care of it.

Health is balance and harmony of body, mind, spirit and our emotional well-being. Honoring diversity, respecting Creation's life cycle, embracing our interconnectedness and practicing Kanyen'kehaka traditional beliefs, are the foundation of health and well-being. The respectful relationships we develop with self, with each other, and with Creation, are how we experience holistic health.

Our self-determination for the preservation and sustainability of the gift of health, will protect us for generations to come.

EDUCATION

Trustee Report for April 2007.

The Hastings and Prince Edward District School Board continues to work on the major challenge of presenting a balanced budget to the ministry of Education by the end of June 2007 for the coming school year of September 2007 to August 2008. The biggest challenge for Boards of Education is to identify and meet local needs of their educational communities from funding coming from the Ministry of Education that often reflects a very generic approach, making it very difficult for Boards to manage programs that meet local needs.

I am pleased to report that Hasting Prince Edward District School Board has in the past and will this year present a balanced budget to the Ministry of Education and will continue to provide quality education for all our students.

Congratulations to Sean Reid from our own Quinte Mohawk School and Tyendinaga community for being the recipient of the Educator of the Year award this year. This is a very prestigious award that recognizes an educator who has made a tremendous contribution to the educational community from throughout the Quinte Region.

Sean is and has been a real asset to our Quinte Mohawk School staff for many years. His work with his students has also benefited our Tyendinaga Community as well.

Thanks Sean for a tremendous job and being a part of our Quinte Mohawk School.

Remember, if you have any questions or concerns, please call me at (613) 962-3595.

Respectfully submitted

Mike Brant, Trustee, HPEDSB representing Tyendinaga First Nations

Quinte Mohawk News

It is an absolute pleasure to have a second teacher from our school chosen for this prestigious award. Thank you to all community members and past and current students who wrote letters to nominate Mr. Reid.

NEWS RELEASE

Sean Reid, Quinte Mohawk School, selected as Educator of the Year

17 April 2007, Belleville, ON—Congratulations to Sean Reid who has been selected as the recipient of the Sir Mackenzie Bowell Educator of the Year Award.

Reid is a Grade 8 teacher at Quinte Mohawk School. Born in Kingston, Ontario, he graduated from Regiopolis-Notre Dame High School then attended Queen's University. After a brief teaching stint in the Yukon Territory, he began teaching at Quinte Mohawk School in 1983.

During his time at Quinte Mohawk School, Reid has been involved in cultural and experiential education such as:

- Exchange visits with other Native communities in Chesterfield Inlet, Nunavut; and Bearskin Lake, Manitoba.
- The study and excavation of Royal Flying Corps Mohawk. He is currently involving Grade 8 students in research about the Veterans of Tyendinaga, World War I and World War II.
- Involvement in the Historical Heritage Fairs program for the past 10 years.

Reid, while at Quinte Mohawk School, quickly acquired an understanding of the uniqueness of the Mohawk history and embarked on a study of First Nations cultural heritage. As an intermediate teacher, he undertook a series of culturally based class field trips with the most notable to Chesterfield Inlet, NWT, now Nunavut. A trip of that nature required an enormous volume of preparation, research, fundraising—an exhausting list. But, more than 20 years later the success of their adventure is still fresh in the memory of all students who participated. To commemorate that trip, Reid initiated a crafts program, later termed the Parka Project whereby under the guidance of a home economist/seamstress students fashioned parkas in the Inuit style. This project was featured in Chatelaine magazine and parkas have been given as gifts to personalities such as the Honourable Jane Stewart, then Minister of Indian and Northern Affairs Canada.

To celebrate Education Week in past years, and as his contribution to the festivities, Reid organized and continues to host a community breakfast in the Quinte Mohawk School gym. It is a very popular event and has been well attended for many years.

Numerous nominations for Reid extol his virtues as an educator through statements such as:

- In Grade 8, he taught me the importance of hard work and to strive for excellence. I finished my Grade 8 year as an honour student and decided that in the future, I too wanted to become a teacher and influence the lives of students the way my life had been influenced.
- Mr. Reid is a great teacher; he can make his students laugh while at the same time he is reinforcing a positive message. I can't tell you how many times after I have asked my son how his day went he starts off with, "Mr. Reid said . . ." followed by some hilarious story. This is exactly the type of atmosphere I wanted for my son in a school setting because it allows him to grow and mature in a comfortable setting all the while working hard towards his academic goals.

Nominators included former and current school administrators, former students and community members.

As a member of the Kingston Historical Society, Reid organizes the annual Heritage Fair and historical workshops for Queen's University students. One of his students won first place for an historical project, enabling her to enter the provincial contest in Prince Edward Island. Reid and his students are currently working on an historical project honouring the Aboriginal Veterans from Tyendinaga Territory.

Background on the Sir Mackenzie Bowell Educator of the Year Award
The Sir Mackenzie Bowell Educator of the Year Award is presented to any person who has made a valuable contribution to education in Hastings and Prince Edward counties. The nominee must have been active in education during the current school year.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell (1823–1917) was a strong supporter of education and an active promoter of Hastings County. An outstanding Canadian, he was primarily a self-taught man who earned a teaching certificate. In 1854, he was elected to the Belleville Board of Education and served as chairperson of that board from 1856 to 1867. He was also a successful businessman who served as editor and proprietor of The Intelligencer for many years, and helped form the Belleville Board of Trade (now Chamber of Commerce) in 1865. In his editorials, he stressed education as a key to development and championed the growth of Belleville and Hastings County as a whole. In addition, Sir Mackenzie Bowell was a man of steadfast character, courage and integrity, placing principle before political party. He held the highest positions in the Orange Lodge and served "on the frontier" with the militia when Irish-Americans threatened invasion in the 1860s. Politically, he distinguished himself as a federal cabinet minister, a senator, and Canada's fifth prime minister (1894–1896).

Quinte Mohawk School Good News-April2007

Greetings from the Life Skills Teachers and students. We would like to extend our gratitude and thanks to all the parents, families and friends who supported our Hot Dog Days for Fire Fighters. We knew that a Thermal Imaging Camera was needed to assist the Fire Department in saving lives in burning buildings. This specialty camera costs many thousands of dollars. We wanted to show our support for our Volunteer Fire Department by collecting donations to contribute to the purchasing of this camera. We set our goal at $1000.00. After 3 hectic hot dog days and very generous contributions from parents, our community Health Center and the Kiwanis Club of Belleville, we collected a whopping $2400.00!

On May 7/07, at our Terrific Kids Assembly, we plan to present these donations to Fire Chief Brant. We hope this will inspire local businesses to donate to this worthy cause, as much more money is needed to purchase this specialized camera. We are very proud of our students efforts and our generous community. We are privileged to have such a dedicated team of well trained volunteers, who make up our Mohawk Volunteer Fire Department. Special thanks to all who help contribute. Sincerely, Mrs. Donna Green, on behalf of the Life Skills Teachers & students of Quinte Mohawk School.

EDUCATION

The guitars are out and the chords are being learned at Quinte Mohawk School! Our own Jennifer "Mustang" Brant has started a guitar club involving as many students as possible. As the students begin this exciting after school program and as guitars are added to in-class music lessons, it gives students an opportunity to try something very new. Who knows? The next Tom Jackson or Keith Urban or Michelle Branch might come from Quinte Mohawk School. I particularly would like to thank Jennifer Brant for putting forth the extra effort to go out to businesses to solicit support. The school purchased 10 brand new guitars and the community businesses contribute enough for 10 more. Through community and school working together we are able to provide this amazing program. Hats off to Mrs. Jennifer Brant for going the extra distance to make things special for the kids. As we hear the opening chords to "Smoke on the Water" and see students trying guitar for the first time, I know that they will gain greater joy from music.

A Special thank you to the following businesses that donated money to purchase a guitar and case for the music program at QMS.

The View From Here Last Call at the Gladstone Hotel – World Broadcast Premiere

Wednesday, May 9, 2007 at 10 pm
60 minutes
Produced by Last Call Productions in association with TVO

Toronto's landmark Gladstone Hotel has undergone many transformations over its lifetime, moving from luxurious beginnings, to post-war flophouse, to its current incarnation as a hip, artist-driven boutique hotel. But behind the window dressing lies a story of a community dealing with change. Filmmakers Derreck Roemer and Neil Graham chronicle the sale and restoration of Toronto's oldest working hotel over a five-year period and capture the impact of this change. The film also documents two acrimonious ownership battles, stalled development plans, an emotional staff lockout and the eviction of vulnerable longtime tenants.

The View From Here My Different Life – World Broadcast Premiere

Wednesday, May 16, 2007 at 10 pm
60 minutes
Produced, written and directed by Karen O'Donnell

An education is a basic right most people take for granted, but when a child has learning disabilities sometimes the system doesn't always work the way it should. Filmmaker Karen O'Donnell explores the frustrations of Denise Dife, a single mother trying to get the proper care for her three kids, two of whom cope with a learning disability and the third with attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD). The film follows this family through pivotal points in their self-discovery and illuminates the challenges they face in their desperate attempts to navigate complex educational and medical institutions. It also offers hope through a learning disabilities advocate and unconventional therapy. Karen O'Donnell has tackled the issue of learning disabilities in her previous documentary for TVO, Odd Kid Out, in which she shared her own struggles as a parent of child with ADHD.

An Aboriginal Approach to Learning

FIRST NATIONS
TECHNICAL INSTITUTE

Sharing and Learning

First Nations Technical Institute (FNTI) has established an international reputation as a leader in Aboriginal education. FNTI has undergone a period of intense growth over the past year, overcoming significant challenges while maintaining its reputation as a leader in Aboriginal education.

During the upcoming year, FNTI will increase its college and university program offerings from seven to fourteen. This is a very exciting time as FNTI asserts its rightful place in the world of colleges and universities.

Mission Statement

The mission of FNTI is to provide respectful, holistic learning opportunities and experiences that enhance the capacity of First Nations people to regain control over their social, political, cultural and economic future.

Who Are We?

First Nations Technical Institute (FNTI), an Aboriginal owned and controlled post-secondary institute, was created in 1985 through innovative and dynamic partnerships between the Tyendinaga Mohawk Council, FNTI Board of Directors, Indian & Northern Affairs Canada, and the Ontario Ministry of Education & Training, to provide access to post-secondary programs for Aboriginal people.

Currently there are over 300 post-secondary students and adult learners from across the country enrolled in capacity building programs at FNTI, and over FNTI's history there have been over 2000 successful graduates from a variety of certificate, diploma and degree programs.

Our Successes

- In August, 2007 FNTI will celebrate its 22nd anniversary of providing quality educational programs to Aboriginal people across Canada.

EDUCATION

- FNTI is the longest standing Aboriginal post-secondary institution in Ontario.
- Aboriginal owned and operated, and directed to holistic learning opportunities for Aboriginal people, FNTI embodies the concept of life-long learning.
- FNTI facilitates Aboriginal student recruitment to post-secondary education through education programs offered at the elementary and secondary level.
- FNTI's success is rooted in its unique culturally-driven delivery style and learner-focused environment.
- FNTI has contributed to First Nations community capacity building through the advancement of its community-based best practices in learning education model.¹
- FNTI is a model of success for post-secondary education in Ontario boasting a 90 percent graduate employment rate.
- Other post-secondary institutions in Ontario, Canada, and globally, have adapted FNTI's approach to learning while developing their programs.
- Since its inception, FNTI has forged several educational partnerships with other colleges and universities, primarily in Ontario, but also in Saskatchewan.
- International educational partnerships have been forged with Indigenous peoples of Chile and South Africa utilizing FNTI's highly recognized PLA experience and techniques.
- FNTI is the second largest employer on the Tyendinaga Mohawk Territory. Locally, FNTI provides over 60 jobs in the Quinte area, resulting in an estimated $6-million contribution to the local economy.
- FNTI has forged numerous governmental, corporate and industry training partnerships over its 22 year history, and is a pioneer of the concept of public-private partnerships.
- Current examples of industry partnerships include, but are not limited to: Aviation program partnerships with Air Creebec and Wasaya, and Media partnerships with CBC, CTV and APTN.
- FNTI has undoubtedly contributed significantly to an increase in post-secondary graduation rates of Aboriginal people in Ontario² with over 2000 graduates, half of this number within the last six years, attesting to the Institute's growth and success.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT AS AN FNTI LEARNER?

Sharing and Learning

FNTI programs are developed and delivered in a manner that is reflective of our guiding philosophy and cultural standards.

We strive to maintain our strengths, which are our cultural focus, our nomadic, intensive mode delivery format, and an exceptional student support system.

A Supportive Learning Environment

Post-secondary programs delivered by FNTI are enhanced to include culturally based learning methods and content.

Every program has a strong faculty of qualified instructors and professional program staff. We have developed a strong reputation for creating and maintaining learner-centred, friendly learning environments.

High-Quality, Ministry Recognized Programs

FNTI has established positive partnerships with a number of colleges and universities in Ontario. These partnerships provide academic accreditation for FNTI's post-secondary programs.

EDUCATION

FNTI is required to meet the Program Standards set by the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities; however, in many cases these standards are surpassed. Students are registered with both FNTI and the mainstream institution associated with their program of study, and receive credentials from both institutions upon the successful completion.

Intensive Mode Delivery

Intensive mode delivery has proven to be a successful model for a number of FNTI's programs and for adult learners. Most of our programs are offered using an intensive mode, distance delivery format with delivery sites at a number of locations in Ontario. To assist with assignments and research, FNTI arranges for students to have access to online library services with the college or university.

Intensive mode delivery may mean a longer learning period than one would experience in mainstream depending on the program of study; however, the format suits adult learners who are employed and wish to remain in their home community while pursuing higher learning.

Students enrolled in intensive mode delivery will attend 6-8 delivery sessions during the academic year. The time between sessions is used by students to complete readings, assignments and occasionally, final exams.

Delivery Locations

Intensive mode delivery sessions are held on or near First Nations communities in Ontario at scheduled intervals. Students, FNTI staff and faculty travel to the delivery locations, where a remote classroom is set up.

Our Public Administration program uses K-Net technology to deliver to three locations; with an instructor at one location and FNTI program personnel at all three locations. A number of programs use nomadic delivery and therefore access a number of delivery sites. Other programs have a fixed delivery site.

Time Away from Your Community

The frequency of delivery sessions varies among the programs. As an example, the Public Administration and Governance sessions are held every other month at various locations throughout Ontario.

Classes for most programs delivering at nomadic locations are generally four to five days in length.

Accommodations

Students enrolled in on-campus programs are invited to inquire about availability at FNTI's student residence (located at the Airport location) and/or rental housing through the Mohawks of the Bay of Quinte.

Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR)

A number of FNTI's post-secondary programs offer students the option to gain academic credit for a number of courses through demonstration of skills, learning and experience gained in a formal or non-formal setting. Students who wish to pursue this option create a learning-based portfolio which is assessed by FNTI, and in some cases, by the post-secondary partner.

Student Support

FNTI strives to provide a well-rounded support system to all students. Our student support system provides academic and personal support to our learners during their relationship with FNTI. Most programs have counsellors and/or tutor-mentors in place to assist students in their learning journey. In many cases, an Elder is associated with a program, and is often on-site during the entire delivery session.

RED CEDARS

New Employees Intro's

Hello

My name is Kristin Acker and I have recently joined the team at Red Cedars Shelter as a full time Counsellor. I graduated from Loyalist College – Social Service Worker Program in the summer of 2004. I look forward to working in your community and to meet new people. I am very excited and eager to begin my new challenges.

She:kon

My name is Amty Mattis and I have recently been employed by Red Cedars Shelter as a Counsellor for a contract position. I am a graduate of Loyalist College – Social Service Worker Program. I look forward to the opportunity to meet and network with community members and agencies over the next year.

Are you currently in an abusive relationship and are undecided whether to stay or leave? If so, it is essential that you make a PERSONAL SAFETY PLAN.

At all times, safety should be uppermost in your mind. The decisions you have to make will be difficult ones, but while you are deciding what course your relationship will take, keep in mind the following tips to ensure the safety of you and your children:

While you are still in the relationship:

1. Make a list of important telephone numbers. If your children are old enough for telephone privileges, give a copy to them. Include police numbers, ambulance, fire, doctor, and your personal safety contacts – family, a neighbour, or a friend's place that you can go to if you need it in an emergency.
2. Tell your friends, family, or neighbours what has been happening. Ask them to call police in case of emergency.
3. Make a list of places that you can safely go in case of emergency. If possible, have at least four people around you that you trust, and tell your children where they should go.
4. Hide some extra money for an emergency somewhere you will be able to get it fast. Make an extra set of car keys. Pack an emergency bag to take with you. Make copies of your important documents and give them to a friend or family member.
5. Keep change for the phone or a phone card with you at all times. If you are able to, open your own bank account, plan your escape route. Update your safety plan periodically.
6. If you leave and have more time to pack, make sure you take the following:
 - Identification
 - Birth certificates
 - Social insurance cards
 - School and medical records
 - Money, bankbook, credit cards, bank cards
 - House, car, and work keys
 - Driver's license and registration

- Medication
- Change of clothes
- Welfare i.d.
- Passport, work permit
- Lease/rental agreement, house deed
- Mortgage payment info, current unpaid bills
- Insurance papers
- Address book
- Pictures, jewelry and children's favourite toys and blankets

If you stay in your home:

1. Change your locks. Install a security system. Make sure your smoke detectors work. Have at least one extinguisher. Have an outside lighting system.
2. Tell your neighbours that your partner is no longer in the home, and ask them to call police if they see him near your home or children.
3. Tell your childcare providers the names of people that are allowed to pick them up. Tell them if your partner is not allowed unsupervised visits.
4. Tell co-workers about your partner and ask them to screen your calls.
5. Try to avoid stores, banks, and other places that you used when you were with your partner.
6. Obtain a protective order against your partner. Keep it on or near you, and leave a copy with someone you trust.
7. Make sure you have a list of supportive contacts you can call if you feel unsure, depressed, or anxious. Join a support group. Try to build new, strong, and supportive relationships.

TYENDINAGA MEN'S GROUP

She:kon sewakwe:kon,

My name is Anataras (Al) Brant and I would like to introduce myself as the Traditional Men's Practitioner.

For those of you who may not know me I am a life long resident of Tyendinaga, I am of the Wolf Clan and my partner Kelly and I have seven children ranging in ages from 7 up to 25 years old and one Grand-Daughter. I have been hired by Mohawk Family Services who is sponsored by the Ontario Victim Services Secretariat for this Project which will run from April 2/07 to March 31/08.

The primary purpose/goal of "Moving towards the Good Mind" is to deliver a time limited research "test theory" project which delivers and evaluates the use of culturally appropriate healing practices and creates a model for capacity building to be used by First Nation communities as a valuable resource. The resources developed will assist our community to deal with the lateral violence and vicarious trauma which has affected so many male victims. We will ensure accessibility for young/adult male victims who may have physical or mental challenges, special needs and who are isolated. The program will design time lined programs to assist young and adult male victims of sexual, physical, emotional, mental and spiritual abuse and their families who have been impacted by exposure to lateral violence and/or multi-generational effects of trauma.

CALLING ALL MEN OF TYENDINAGA MOHAWK TERRITORY

RE: Good Baby Box Orders

Dear Parents:

From this date forward:

- Parents are responsible for paying for the Box by the Friday before the pick up date. If boxes are not paid for at that time, we will not be able to pick up your box. It is becoming too much of a deficit for the Community Development Council. If you do not have the money until a certain time, you are able to pick them up yourself or you can also pay in advance for a certificate. We encourage each family to pay in advance when it is possible for you to do so.
- we will be delivering the Boxes to Mohawk Family Services.
- Each parent is responsible for picking up, or having someone else pick it up by 4:30 on the Tuesday of delivery.

We will continue to order and pick up every other Tuesday.

We will work very hard at having the boxes there for 1:30 pm. If you like, you can call the Mohawk Family Services before going to ensure that they are there. It is imperative that these boxes are picked up on the Tuesday. We cannot be responsible for them after that time. If you are unable to pick up your box, please contact us to make alternate arrangements.

Thank you so much for your time and patience in getting this program organized. I appreciate your assistance and look forward to working with your family. If you have any questions or concerns regarding this issue, please do not hesitate to contact myself or Barbara Gail Brant, HBHC Home Visitor. We will work with you in order to continue offering this important service.

Sincerely,

Kim Maracle, Program Manager

NEEDED: PREGNANT MOTHERS!
PLEASE HELP!

... Two years ago, we held a DONA* training workshop for women interested in becoming birth doulas. This was just the first step of a lengthy process, which we hoped some women would pursue further. Now we are pleased to update the community that some women have been pursuing DONA* certification and are close to being certified. ... they just need to provide doula care to a few more pregnant mothers through labour & birth, as part of their practical experience. If you can help one of our doulas become certified by accepting her support, please contact one of the numbers below. We will help you find a doula you are comfortable with!

... DONA* certification is the "gold standard" in doula care. It is a mother's assurance of the highest, safest Standards of Care and training, and a Code of Ethics which includes confidentiality, reliability, respect for your birth choices, and working as part of your care team. Her goal is to gently support you (and your partner), and to help you have a positive birth memory.

Why should you care about FASD?

☉It hurts individuals and families.

☉It has a large impact on communities.

☉If someone knows that a child has FASD early, the child can get the support that he or she needs. Early diagnosis means fewer problems later on in life – with drugs, alcohol, unwanted pregnancy, mental health issues, and the law.

FASD is not a label.

It helps to get supports in place to help a child make good choices, get along with others, master skills, and feel good about him or herself.

THE BROKEN CHAIN

We never knew that evening, that the Creator was going to call your name,

In life we loved you dearly and in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone,

For part of us went with you, the day he called you home.

You left us peaceful memories; your love is still our guide,

And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same,

But as the Creator calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Our family would like to express our sincere thanks to all Community members, family, and friends for there sympathy and support during this hard time in our lives. We wish to extend our sincere thanks to everyone who came to visit, brought us food, helped us in our time of need, and those who sent memorial donations, cards and expressions of sympathy in the loss of our Son and Bother. Our appreciation is extended to all the Community Members for their dedication and support in performing the traditional ceremonies.

Sincerely, Darla Brant & Family

In loving memory of a wonderful dad,

Donald Carr-Braint

June 5, 1930 - May 27, 2005

What we would give if we could say

Hello Dad, in the same old way,

To hear your voice, and see your smile,

To sit with you and chat awhile,

So if you have a father,

Cherish him with care,

For you will never know the heartache

Till you see his vacant chair.

Dad, We will love you forever. You are missed!!

Love always, Carol, Harry, Betty, Billy, MJ, Norman, Marilyn, Tracey, Mike & families.

NIA:WEN KOWA / THANK YOU

On behalf of the families of the late Margaret R. (Maggie) and Alvin A. (Banty) Maracle, we would like to thank and express our sincere gratitude for the over whelming support and kindness in the recent passing of our father on April 10, 2007.

Our heartfelt thanks to the Napanee General Hospital, Kingston General Hospital/CCU & ICU, McGlades Funeral Home, Tyendinaga Home and Community Care and Chief R. Donald Maracle for being there and conducting Dad's Celebration of Life. As well, our heartfelt thanks to the Mohawks of the Bay of Quinte for the use of the Council House and their kind support, Joe Brown for the Mohawk words and prayers, the Traditional Women's Group for preparing the meal and the many friends and family who provided donations of food, telephone calls, donations, flowers, their love and support, laughter, words of kindness, thoughtfulness and the sharing of their memories of our father's life during this time.

Nia:wen kowa to everyone.

Family of the late Alvin A. Maracle Sr.

*In Loving Memory of Mom & Gramma, Clara Maracle

In our Hearts

We thought of you today but that's nothing new. We thought about you yesterday and the days before that too.

We think of you in silence and we often speak your name. Now all we have is memories and your pictures in a frame.

*Your memory is out keepsake, with which we will never part.
God has you in his keeping. We have you in our hearts!*

*Sadly missed and loved by Crystal, Eric,
Matt, Tina, Laura, Chloe & Bailey*
